

SOCIETY

M. R. AND MRS. CHARLES W. TANNER announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen L. Tanner, to Hugh Fontaine Rose, of the city, the wedding to take place in October. Miss Tanner is one of the most beautiful young society girls in Richmond, and has been a great belle since her debut two winters ago. Hugh Rose is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose, of this city, and is prominent in business and social circles here, and their wedding will be one of the brilliant society events of the early fall.

Opera Here in November.
Great plans are under way for a charming reproduction in this city in November of the opera "Mikado," under the auspices of the Belle Harrison Memorial Circle and Kate Emple Guilgon Memorial Circle of King's Daughters. The chorus will be made up of the debutantes and many young society girls. In the cast will be some Richmonders, and also amateurs from other cities, and a trainer from elsewhere will have the rehearsals in charge. The "Mikado" will be one of the big events of the early fall season. The leaders of the Belle Harrison Circle are Mrs. Armistead L. Vofford, Mrs. Charles E. Whitlock, Mrs. H. H. Lindsay, Mrs. W. H. Worthington, Jr., Mrs. Stuart Hume, Mrs. C. C. Pinckney, Mrs. Thomas Rutherford, leaders in the Kate Emple Guilgon Circle are Mrs. C. P. Lea, Mrs. Lewis Aylett, Mrs. R. P. Altop, Mrs. E. A. Blanton, Mrs. J. W. Warren, Jr., Miss Ellie Guilgon and Mrs. F. T. McFadden.

Richmonders to Summer Abroad.
Mrs. Julia Grant Moore and Misses Moore, Mrs. W. J. Walker and her sister, Mrs. Bettie Hayes, Mrs. James Lee Shelton and her son, David Porter, Mrs. W. H. Todd and Mrs. G. H. Davenport, are sailing this month to spend the summer in Europe. Miss Sally Deane will chaperon a party abroad this week, and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Davenport will spend several months in traveling on the Continent.

Miss Guilgon's Music Class.
An event of much interest to the children was Miss Guilgon's June musicale, which took place on June 2, and ended the regular season of music lessons. Many little folks, as well as older, took part in the program, and most of them played from memory, and the chorus singing of the children was impressive in that they sang with so much ease and sweetness. All the class have taken great interest in their work for the past year, and their commencement pieces showed aspirations to "high things." Among those who took part were Misses Elizabeth Warren, Martha and Rebecca Alton, Eleanor Parrish, Alice Jones, Annie S. Hawes, Catherine Spicer, Edmonia J. Beattie, Elizabeth G. Wilt, Elsie F. Wilmer, Anne Warren, Elise W. Atkinson, Virginia F. T. Dew, Susanna D. Knapp, Anne H. Friend, L. Margaret Evans, Maria M. Wilkinson, Elizabeth R. Frazier, Elizabeth T. Owen, Lella A. Friend, M. Blanche Gentry, Katherine S. Lee, Marie S. Jones, Caroline S. Salter, A. Landall Dronette, Dorothy Courtney, Martha E. Chapman, Maria Adkins, Frances V. Carrington, Katie E. Branch, Florence Pizzini and Beverly B. Munford, Arthur Selinger, Jr., and Frederick R. Scott.

House Party at the University.
The annual house party for commencement at the Delta Tau Delta fraternity house at the University of Virginia, has come to be a great event among the younger girls here, as some eight or ten Richmond girls are usually invited. The party includes always about fifteen girls, who are the guests of the fraternity members and are entertained and feted without end.

Among those in the Delta Tau Delta house party are Misses Della Davenport, Lucy Ford Wortham, Emma Gray White, Jane Boulware, Mary Chalmers, Gay Montague, Margaret Gill, of Petersburg, Weems, of Texas, and Drake, of Georgia.

Ten-Drinking at Woman's Club.
The Monday social gathering will be held as usual at the Woman's Club to-morrow afternoon. These informal meetings are particularly attractive on warm afternoons, when the members gather in their cool and airy parlors to discuss club matters and topics of interest over the tea cups. They will be continued until midsummer, as will also the daily teas.

Engagement Announced.
Dr. Joseph B. Lacy, of Nathalie, Va., announces the engagement and approaching marriage of his niece, Miss Kate Barker Lacy, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lacy, to Edward Rush Young, the wedding to take place on June 21.

Of Interest Here.
An engagement of interest is society in Baltimore and Virginia which has recently been announced is that of Miss Rebecca Waters White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Robinson White, of Glenhurst, Relay, Md., and William A. Boykin, Jr., son of Colonel and Mrs. William A. Boykin, of Ruxton, Maryland.

At the Art Club.
The exhibition at the Art Club of work done by pupils of the Art School will prove of absorbing interest, because it is an exhibition of strictly local talent, and shows what great progress has been made within the last few years in the development of art in Richmond.

Among those of the "grown-up" pupils who have been given mention are the following: In the portrait class, Miss Helen Lorraine, a charming piece of work, and well deserving the place of honor, "Honorable mention in composition" is a notable piece by Miss Anabel Hays. In drawing, Miss Edith Anne Pemberton Ragland has received honorable mention, and second mention in the same class is Miss Katherine Hildner.

In the children's class the scholarship presented annually by the Art School was won by Miss Eleanor Schofield, and honorable mention by Miss Dorothy Smith. The above list comprises those pictures which become the property of the future, and will be exhibited in the future as a means of comparison of progress by members of the Art School.

The excellent portrait from life by Mrs. Jeffrey Montague of "Captain Sally Tompkins" will alone repay a visit to the Art Club Rooms.

Captain Sally is well known to the older residents of Richmond, and her portrait should become the property of the city if for no other reason than that she is probably the only woman who ever held a regular commission as cavalry officer in any army.

The outdoor sketching class of the Art Club will hold its regular session in the garden of the club, and is a distinct innovation over previous years. In this class models will be posed in costume suitable to the surroundings, and special nooks will be reserved with an eye to their simplicity, as this class is also for such school children as are too fully occupied to take advantage of the regular winter classes.

The exhibition of school work will be retained on the walls of the clubhouse for some time longer. Miss Ann Fletcher has an excellent piece of work here in the full length portrait of Mrs. George Cole Scott, costumed in her dress worn at her presentation at court during her visit to England.

Miss Almond to go to Europe.

Miss Nancy Almond, of Lynchburg, and her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Ashby, of Baltimore, will sail for Europe with a small party under the management of the Eager Tours, of Baltimore. They will return in September.

Meeting of St. John's Circle.

A very important called meeting of St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will be held on Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. T. Hancock, Jr., 2701 East Grace Street. Every member is urged to be present.
